The Honorable John S. Herrington
The Secretary of Energy
Washington, D.C. 20585

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I was most pleased to receive your letter commending the work of [redacted] during his recently completed tour with the Department of Energy. I am glad that [redacted] was able to employ his talents so effectively in your organization.

As you know, the Central Intelligence Agency has long been involved in the analysis of all aspects of international energy security. A very important part of this effort has been the close, and I believe mutually advantageous, cooperation between our two organizations. I trust that this cooperation will persist and become even more fruitful in the future.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ William H. Webster
